

HISTORY

TOP TEN

- Ask your parents and grandparents about major changes they have witnessed in their lifetime and how they think these have impacted the world.
- Visit Mossley Industrial Heritage Centre to see how it contributed to the Industrial Revolution.
- Do you know anyone in the Armed Forces? Where have they been stationed and why? Can you locate this on a map? What previous conflicts have happened here?
- Visit the People's History Museum.
- Visit the Ashton War Memorial near Old Street and see if you can research one of the names of the soldiers who fought in the war and find some information about them.
- Visit the Power Hall in the Museum of Science and Industry. How were goods transported during the Industrial Revolution? What interesting things can you see here?
- Research different castles in The United Kingdom, which is your favourite and why?
- See if you have any Horrible Histories books in your school library, what can you learn from these light-hearted books?
- Research The Battle of Hastings; what happened and how was the battle won?
- And lastly, try and watch Battlefield Britain - E04 - The Battle against the Spanish Armada; England's most famous naval victory.

HUMANITIES

TOP TEN

- Visit the Imperial War Museum North and explore the impact of conflicts on people and society.
- Visit the land slips at Mam Tor, Castleton, and take in the amazing geography on offer there.
- Visit Quarry Bank Mill and see the impact of the Industrial Revolution on Manchester.
- Visit the People's History Museum and learn about the lives, work and leisure activities of British people.
- Test your understanding of places around the world by visiting GeoGuessr.com. Make sure you record your highest score!
- Visit Liverpool's International Slavery Museum to see the history and legacy of the Transatlantic Slave Trade.
- Try to read lots of news articles over the holidays. Bring in a piece of writing about a humanities related news story that you found most interesting.
- Take a picture of an amazing place that you visited on holiday. Bring it to your first humanities lesson and be prepared to tell the class all about it!
- Test your knowledge of countries, cities and capital cities on Sporcle.com
- Complete your own version of a map of your local area. Be sure to add on key places of interest such as religious buildings, shops, schools etc.